

S7 AIRLINES OPTS IN FAVOR OF WIRECARD

Grasbrunn/Munich, May 25, 2009 - With immediate effect, the Russian S7 Airlines will make use of payment services provided by Wirecard AG in connection with credit card acceptance via Wirecard Bank AG.

S7 Airlines is the largest air freight operator on Russian domestic flight schedules and is among the TOP-50 of the global airfreight enterprises. In addition to its domestic flight schedule, S7's program extends to include line flights to 20 countries across the globe, including Europe in particular and the countries of the Asian-Pacific region.

Maxim Polukhin, Sales Director at S7 Airlines says: "Wirecard has created a payment solution that is individually customized to our particular needs".

"After establishing a presence in Europe, the Middle East and Asia, we have now also managed to gain a foothold in Russia and Eastern Europe", says Joerg Moeller, VP Travel & Transport at Wirecard AG. "The fact that S7 Airlines already is the third Russian airline we have acquired as a customer bears testimony to the international capabilities of our platform."

In the wake of its global market penetration, today Wirecard AG can make far-reaching risk management systems and highly specialized modules available for fraud detection. In this way, customers stand to benefit from the experience gained by the Wirecard Group and intensify their international expansion plans.
